CHICAGO – Amy M. Blumenthal, a partner at Gould & Ratner LLP, has been appointed to the Erie Family Health Foundation board of directors.

The Erie Family Health Foundation and its board members support and advance the mission of Erie Family Health Center in a variety of ways, including increasing overall awareness of the health center in the Chicago area, as well as generating philanthropic support from individuals, businesses and institutions.

Erie Family Health Center's mission is to provide accessible, affordable and high-quality health care for those in need. The center serves nearly 70,000 medical patients and 12,000 dental patients in the language of their choice and with respect for their cultural values and beliefs. Erie Family's community-based health centers are portals to high-quality care – and a higher quality of life – regardless of a patient's ability to pay.

Blumenthal, a former chair of Gould & Ratner's Real Estate Practice, has more than 30 years of experience in all areas of real estate, including office, retail, hotel, industrial and luxury residential properties, often concentrating on financing, acquisitions and sales, as well as real estate development and land use. Her clients, from a variety of industries such as manufacturing, hospitality, food and beverage, and publishing, value her ability to listen and understand their priorities and needs to best help them achieve their business goals.

For more than 75 years, Gould & Ratner LLP has provided comprehensive legal counsel and business advice to Fortune 500 corporations, closely-held businesses, financial institutions and entrepreneurs, as well as families and their businesses in real estate, corporate, tax, estate and succession planning, litigation, human resources and employment, intellectual property, environmental and related specialty fields.
