Gould & Ratner Bids Farewell to Fred Tannenbaum After 42 Years

After 42 years of dedicated service, Gould & Ratner bids farewell to Corporate Partner Fred Tannenbaum as he closes the practice of law chapter of his remarkable career.

Since joining the firm, Fred has been a trusted advisor to clients and a valued colleague whose steady counsel, intellectual curiosity, and commitment to excellence have left a lasting mark on the firm. Throughout more than four decades of growth and change, he has helped shape Gould & Ratner while building enduring relationships with clients, colleagues, and the broader business community.

We are grateful for Fred's many contributions to Gould & Ratner and the example he has set through his professionalism, generosity, and unwavering commitment to our clients and colleagues.

Congratulations, Fred, and best wishes as you begin your next adventure.
