

November 11, 2022

Gould & Ratner Represented Ichthus Capital in Non-Dilutive Financing with Saebo

David Hoeppner

Robert Chidester

Rebecca Smart

Julie Gracz

Heather Basile

Corporate

Gould & Ratner recently represented Ichthus Capital Partners in a non-dilutive financing with Saebo. Saebo is a medical device company that is focused on providing products to support the rehabilitation process for stroke patients. Ichthus Capital Partners is a rapidly growing lending fund active in the healthcare space based in Vancouver, Canada. Ichthus uses innovative and bespoke credit structures in each of its investments, providing investors strong downside protection while generating an attractive absolute rate of return.

David Hoeppner, a partner in the firm's Corporate Practice, led a team of lawyers and paralegals that included Rob Chidester, acting as relationship partner, Rebecca Smart, Julie Gracz and Heather Basile.

Read the press release here.