Gould & Ratner recently represented Ichthus Capital Partners in the close of its $7 million inaugural private credit fund. Investors included institutional credit investors Cypress Hills Partners and Merchants Opportunities Fund, as well as several high-net-worth individuals.

Ichthus Capital Partners is a private investment firm that targets commercial-stage companies in the healthcare and technology industries. In addition to the fund closing, Ichthus also secured its first investment in Elevation Autism Center, a provider of applied behavior analysis therapy services for children with autism spectrum disorder in Georgia.
