

January 12, 2026

Habitat for Humanity Chicago Celebrates 25 Years of Pro Bono Partnership with Gould & Ratner

We are honored to be featured in an article highlighting our 25-year pro bono partnership with Habitat for Humanity Chicago and the meaningful impact we have built together. The story reflects our firm's commitment to community engagement, collaboration and using our legal skills to support affordable homeownership across Chicago. We are proud of our attorneys whose dedication helps move this mission forward every day.

You can read the full article here.

