Jason Bark Joins Gould & Ratner as Senior Associate

Jason Bark

Gould & Ratner is pleased to announce that Jason Bark has joined the firm as a senior associate in our Corporate Practice.

With a background in the startup world and a business-first mindset, Jason brings invaluable experience to early-stage companies and venture investors alike. He advises clients through all stages of the corporate lifecycle—from formation and financing to growth and exit—with a steady, strategic approach that's grounded in real-world insight.

Jason's practice spans life sciences and cutting-edge tech industries, including AI, blockchain, crypto, gaming and cloud infrastructure. Learn more about Jason here.
