

April 25, 2019

Jennifer Tolsky Named Partner at Gould & Ratner

Jennifer Tolsky

Tax Planning & Structuring

A member of the firm's Tax and Estate Planning and Wealth Transfer Practices, Tolsky provides strategic counsel on a wide range of estate planning and tax-focused matters, including advising individuals, families and businesses in complex wealth transfer strategies and business succession planning.

"We are delighted to have Jennifer join our partnership, she brings a wealth of experience to the firm and is a pleasure to work with on matters very personal and thus very important to our clients." Said John Mays, a managing partner of the firm.

Tolsky is a certified public accountant who began her career at Gould & Ratner as a tax accountant, before becoming an associate. She also was a tax associate at RSM US LLP, where she prepared and reviewed tax returns for partnerships and individuals.

Tolsky's promotion to partner was recently featured in a National Law Review article. The feature discusses the natural segue between tax compliance and estate planning, and how Jennifer's prior career as a CPA has contributed to her success as a lawyer. Read the full article here.

Tolsky earned a J.D. from John Marshall Law School and a bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign.

For more than 75 years, Gould & Ratner LLP has provided comprehensive legal counsel and business advice to Fortune 500 corporations, closely held businesses, financial institutions and entrepreneurs, as well as families and their businesses in tax, estate and succession planning, litigation, real estate, corporate, human resources and employment, construction, environmental, intellectual property and related specialty fields.