Karen Meehan Wins Habitat for Humanity's "Golden Hammer" Award

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Gould & Ratner LLP is pleased to announce that Karen Meehan, a partner in the Real Estate Practice, has been awarded Habitat for Humanity's "Golden Hammer" award in recognition of her extraordinary legal service to Habitat and to its clients.

Habitat acknowledged her extraordinary kindness and compassion towards their clients as she guided them through the closing process. For most, it is the first time they have ever owned a house and the process can be intimidating.

Karen was recognized not only for her professionalism and commitment to Habitat, but for her commitment to the people that Habitat was formed to help.

For more than 75 years, Gould & Ratner LLP has provided comprehensive legal counsel and business advice to Fortune 500 corporations, closely-held businesses, financial institutions and entrepreneurs, as well as families and their businesses in real estate, corporate, tax, estate and succession planning, litigation, human resources and employment, environmental and related specialty fields.
