Litigation Practice Welcomes Tina Jonsson

Gould & Ratner LLP is pleased to announce that Tina Jonsson is joining the firm as an associate in the Litigation Practice.

Jonsson focuses her practice on complex commercial litigation cases. She represents clients in litigation matters involving alleged economic tort, breaches of contract, federal statutory violations and other causes of action, including healthcare-related disputes, class actions and parallel proceedings in multiple venues.

"We are thrilled to welcome Tina to Gould & Ratner," said Eric P. Sparks, chair of Gould & Ratner's Litigation Practice. "Her excellent credentials as an attorney and experience handling complex litigation matters will provide great value to our clients."

Before joining Gould & Ratner, Jonsson was an associate attorney at the Chicago office of a large global law firm.

While attending law school, Jonsson was a member of Loyola University Chicago's Law Journal and the American Constitution Society. She also participated in the Saul Lefkowitz I.P. Moot Court team. During law school, Jonsson served as a judicial extern to the Hon. Michael B. Hyman of the Illinois First District Appellate Court.

Jonsson earned her J.D. from Loyola University Chicago School of Law, graduating magna cum laude. She received a bachelor's degree in journalism and international studies from Penn State University.
