Tax Planning & Structuring

Bio

Sharon Adams is known for her thoughtful, detail-driven approach to tax work and her ability to navigate complex matters with clarity and confidence. With more than a decade of experience in accounting, following an earlier career within Oklahoma's District Court System, Sharon combines accounting precision with a strong foundation in legal processes to deliver thoughtful, well-rounded tax solutions.

Her role involves preparing tax returns, addressing clients' ongoing tax needs, and collaborating closely with firm partners and the broader tax team to ensure accuracy, compliance and timely delivery. Sharon's background enables her to assess tax matters thoughtfully, balancing technical requirements with practical considerations that support client goals.
